Two Team Project launched during European Paper Week 2012

At the 14 November CEPI launched a one year long competition between two teams that will identify concepts of breakthrough technologies in the pulp and paper industries. During CEPI's Annual Meeting Jussi Pesonen, Chairman of CEPI, gave a go to the Two Team Captains, Heiner Grussenmeyer and Jerome Grassin. Two teams of experts were set up. These two teams will have several meetings during the first half of the upcoming year and will have to present their results to a top-class Jury in October 2013. The best concepts will be awarded during the European Paper Week 2013.

1st Two Team Project Meeting

On Friday December 14th, the Red and the Blue Teams joined in one of the sphere of the Atomium in Brussel for their first meeting in order to kick-start their process and to ensure an equal playing field. Ms Teresa Presas, CEPI Director General, was there to welcome all the participants and to thank them for their commitment in this meaningful project for the pulp and paper industries. After the morning session on information catch up and
